THE ELECTRIC MOTOR.

Its Adoption by the Belt Line—The Meeting in Philadelphia.

A number of the directors of the Belt Line Ballway Company of this city are in Philadelphia to-day for the purpose of inspecting and witnessing the operations of the new electric motor for street-cars now being manufactured by Mears. Wharton & Co. of that city. Mr. Charles White, president of the Belt Line, and Mr. W. J. Gowing, one of the directors, visited Philadelphia in August last for the purpose of forestigating and determining upon the practicability of this new motor. They reparted it as a perfect success, and the company has decided to adopt it as soon as the consent of Congress can be secured.

Tresident flurt of the Washington and Director Beali of the Metropolitan, are also in Philadelphia attending the meeting of the Sirest Railway Association, and with the view of witnessing further tests of the electric motor.
